15th October 1811

At 5 in the Morning in the Dillagence in Company with Sir James Gray and Lady Thompson and Lavenie Perrit prepd visiting the Country Towns. The Dillagence is a very heavy Carriage drawn by Six & sometimes Eight horses - carrying about Ten Passengers and a large quantity of goods and Luggage - -

at about 9 in the morning arrived at the Village of Valogne
and breakfasted —
Valogne is a small Village and has one tol
rable street with a
run of water on each side —
from Cherbourg to Valogne the Country is hilly and very bad —
producing buckwheat, some apples & large quantities of cider is made in the Part of the Country this

in their families —

15th Three miles from Monteburgh is the Village of St Mary's
Church
Dapping through a highly cultivated &
beautiful Country
Bourgh St Mary's
Church at Bourgh
is very ancient and in a good state of repair —

At 2 arrived at Carpentaria after passing through
the most beautiful
country that can be imagined every foot
being under cultivation or used for grazing
I saw many fine cattle
and then for about
miles of apple trees
passed several fine
farms & the roads
very good — and farms
are very easy & simple

15th Charnaton is a walled City and contains within the walls and in the suburbs about 150
Inhabitants - all appearing Industrious gay
People in the City
there is a very ancient Cathedral with Chains in two very Lar-

At 4 arrived at Baycan — which appears to be a large
and very antient
Town The streets
narrow and the houses high —
from Baycan to Eden the country
is fertile and highly cultivated indeed
nothing can be more

17th at 4 in the Morning left Cairn and passed through a beautiful Country — the face of the Country more hilly than what we had passed through — at 7 arrived at Aboukir which we found to be a very Dirty Town streets narrow and the Houses very old and

built of timber
filled in with Clay
after which the Clay
is white washed and
the broad lipe of
natural colour
which gives the
house a singular
appearance

There is a stream of

to be seen in the streets which are very troublesome —
Mouth contains ab out 15 Thousand — Inhabitants —

we found the road
from Cuen to Mont
full of Dutch & German conscripts
travelling for Brest
to go onboard the ships stationed there
all the conscripts
of France are taking indeed ma ny are but are not more than 14 years old

we found at Mount

of Boston ——
found the Opera House very elegant
and the Performance brilliant. This Lane
I am informed pays

so these contributions
from other theatres
the Emperor pays
large sums for its support out
of the Treasury of the Empire —

as the Theatre is under his Patronage

at 9 at night arrived at Vaux after pass ing through the same
beautiful country
as before - the entrance into Vaux is very beautiful. Passing by Town Two Rows of Trees and a Canal on Each side - the town
appears much the same than any
